

Thomas Malthus

M

Reputation: 5

Impact: 5

Controversy: 6

(1766 –1834) A clergyman from Surrey, he applied mathematics to the problem of population dynamics, and showed population and food supply increase at different rates, and that there would always be famine, war and disease to keep populations in check.