

Santiago Ramón y Cajal

B

Reputation: 8

Impact: 8

Controversy: 5

(1852 –1934) A Spanish scientist, he failed at school but developed an interest in anatomy. He and his father robbed graves and inspected the bodies at home. Eventually made several discoveries around the physiology of the brain.